

PRESIDENT WILSON ADDRESSES STUDENTS

Attends Christening of His Granddaughter

Executive Asserts we Should Address Ourselves to the Welfare of the Nation Without Thought of Partisan Feeling.

WILLIAMSPORT, Mass., Nov. 10.—"Now that the campaign is over we all address ourselves to the welfare of the nation without thought of partisan feeling," declared President Wilson in his first public speech since the national election delivered before a delegation of Williams-town residents and Williams College students, who greeted him here late today. The president was welcomed by the students and townspeople at the christening of Eleanor Ayson Sayre, the second child of his daughter, Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, and for whom he stood as God-father. Soon after his arrival at the home of his son-in-law, assistant to the president of Williams College, the delegation headed by President H. A. Garfield of the college marched to the Sayre home. The president spoke from the porch of the house and was cheered enthusiastically by the students.

"I came here to forget the field of politics and for a brief rest. I came simply to visit my daughter and to attend a simple ceremony here today," he said. "Now that the campaign is over we may all address ourselves to the welfare of the nation without thought of partisan feeling."

The president referred to his service as chief executive of Princeton University saying he knew from experience there was politics even in the running of a college.

"Politics," he continued, "is after all a means of getting something done, of putting forward ideas. It is a fight, but the man who does not love the fight has no red blood in his veins."

Mr. Garfield, a son of President Garfield, declared the president's words during the campaign had been "full of wisdom and light." He added: "We wish you Godspeed in your great office."

When the president arrived here this afternoon he found a stack of telegrams three feet high congratulating him on his re-election. He will reply to none of them until his return to Washington since no stenographer accompanied him.

Speaks Again at Night

Williams-town, Mass., Nov. 10.—In a speech here tonight before several thousand persons who came from nearby towns to congratulate him on his re-election, President Wilson said:

"I want to say that now the campaign is over we must think of only one thing, and that is not of parties, but of the interest of the great country we all love. Let us forget all our differences and unite for good service. Only in that way can we work for the great nation that has given us liberty and peace."

The president's second speech of the day here was delivered before a crowd of men from North Adams, Pittsfield and other towns who came here and marched to the home of Francis B. Sayre, the president's son-in-law, where Mr. Wilson is staying. The delegation surrounded Mr. Sayre's home and cheered until the president appeared on the porch.

A life and drum corps played patriotic airs. Automobile headlights were thrown on the porch and brought out the president in bold relief. He smiled broadly.

"We are here to congratulate you on your re-election," said William E. Grenier, president of the North Adams Wilson and Marshall club, in introducing the president.

Mr. Wilson after thanking the crowd for "this generous outpouring of love and loyalty to Williams-town to avoid making speeches."

"You will forgive me if I do not discuss public affairs," he added.

During the day the president was in communication with Democratic national headquarters regarding the counting of ballots. He made no statement however. As the delegation began leaving a man called out cheers for "Baby Sayre" and they were given.

PLAN ESTABLISHMENT OF MEDICAL SCHOOL

University of Chicago's New Institution Will Start With Enormous Endowment Fund.

New York, Nov. 10.—The general education board incorporated with the Rockefeller Foundation has appropriated $2,000,000 to the University of Chicago for the establishment of a high grade medical school it was announced here tonight.

The University will appropriate at least the same amount and will give a site valued at $500,000. An additional sum of $3,000,000 will be raised by the University. The new medical school will start with an initial endowment of almost $8,000,000 which, according to Dr. Abraham Flexner, who made the announcement is the largest ever provided for any college of medicine in the world.

SCHOOL GIRL HURT

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 10.—A Santa Fe railroad engine struck a hack carrying 25 school children from the Smelter school to their homes today. Natividad Guerra, a school girl, had her left arm cut off and seven others were more or less seriously injured. No one was killed.

DISCUSS PURPOSES OF MEXICAN REVOLUTION

Mexican Members of American-Mexican Joint Committee Guests of Honor in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10.—The purposes and ideals of the Mexican revolution were discussed here tonight by the Mexican members of the American and Mexican joint committee at a joint meeting of the American academy of political and social science and the Pennsylvania Arbitration and Peace Society, at which they were guests of honor. The speakers were Luis Cabrera, minister of finance under the Carranza government; Ignacio Bonillas, minister of communications; Alberto J. Pani, director general of the national railways of Mexico; and Juan B. Rojo, counselor of the state department of Mexico and secretary of the Mexican commissioners.

Mr. Bonillas laid much emphasis on the work of pacification now going on under the Carranza government as a guarantee that the six years civil war is subsiding, and Mr. Pani declared that what Mexico needed more than intervention to restore order and establish a firm democratic government is education.

"The election will do much more to win the confidence of the Latin-American people," Mr. Rojo said, prior to the meeting, "because to them it demonstrated that the friendly attitude of non-intervention is not merely the attitude of one temporary administration, but is the attitude of the American people."

In the event of war between the United States and any other nation outside of America, Mexico understands her attitude must be one of complete continental solidarity, Mr. Bonilla declared.

After the occupation of Vera Cruz by the forces of Mexico, a conflict with the United States increased considerably, chiefly since it is known that one of the political parties of the United States frankly advocates intervention.

The President referred to his service as chief executive of Princeton University saying he knew from experience there was politics even in the running of a college.

"Politics," he continued, "is after all a means of getting something done, of putting forward ideas. It is a fight, but the man who does not love the fight has no red blood in his veins."

GERMANS GAIN RUSSIAN POSITIONS

Petrograd War Office Admits Success of Teutons

Attack on the Two and a Half Mile Front Results in Capture of 3,000 Prisoners—No Important Changes Reported in Dobrudja.

Driving against the center of the Russian line on the eastern front, German troops have gained possession of Russian positions on a front of about two and a half miles. The attack, which resulted also in the capture of more than 3,000 prisoners, took place in the district of Skobrowa, twelve miles northeast of Baranovich, north of the Pinsk marshes and where only isolated fighting has occurred lately. The Russians, Berlin also says, lost 27 machine guns and twelve mine throwers.

The success of the Germans is admitted by Petrograd war office, which announces that the Russians, after stubborn resistance against seven onslaughts, finally were compelled to fall back to their second line of trenches. Elsewhere on the eastern front to the Carpathians, there has been little fighting, according to the official communications. In Dobrudja the advance of the Russo-Romanian forces southward continue and Petrograd records a battle with Field Marshal Von Mackensen's troops in the region of Tchernovoda recently abandoned by the Rumanians. At Tchernovoda is the bridge of the railroad running between Constanza and Bucharest, and it is for this bridge the Russians and Rumanians are fighting.

Petrograd also announces the occupation of several towns on the Hirsowa and Tchernovoda. Berlin says there have been no important changes in Dobrudja. On the Transylvania-Rumanian front, Archduke Charles has assumed the offensive and pushed back the Rumanians. The Federal sector stubborn fighting continues with both the Austro-Germans and the Rumanians claiming progress. The Austrians have almost completely recovered the ground lost in the Georgyev mountains, November 4.

Several trench elements north of the Somme near Les Boefs and Sail-lis have been captured by the French. Berlin states Franco-British attacks between Gueducourt and Sailly were repulsed.

There has been much aerial fighting on the western front. Berlin records the destruction of seventeen entente aeroplanes and Paris asserts ten German machines were brought down. London admits seven British aircraft failed to return to their base after flights in the air.

Inclement weather continues to hamper operations on a large scale on the Macedonia and Austro-Italian fronts.

REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS TIED

Each Party Now Has 215 Representatives—Vote in New Mexico Will Determine Which Party Is to Have Plurality.

New York, Nov. 10.—With returns missing tonight from only one congressional district in the United States, the Republicans and Democrats each had elected 215 Representatives. The vote in New Mexico, which is still in doubt, probably will determine which party is to have a plurality of one over the other. The present member from New Mexico is a Republican.

The balance of power in the next house will be held by four men, one a Progressive Protectionist from Louisiana, one an Independent from Massachusetts, one a Progressive from Minnesota and the other a Socialist from New York.

Their action apparently will determine the choice of a speaker as well as the fate of legislation which is supported or opposed on purely party lines.

In addition to the hope of electing a congressman at large from New Mexico the Democrats had one grain of comfort tonight. It was that an official count may disclose that Thomas J. Scully has been re-elected from the Third New Jersey District. They contended the chances were that Scully had been the victor by a few votes over Robert Carson, his Republican opponent, to whom the election previously had been conceded by a narrow margin.

Situation Further Complicated.

Late returns tonight appeared further to complicate the congressional situation. Congressman James J. Britt, Republican of the tenth North Carolina district was reported to have defeated his Democratic opponent, whose election previously had been conceded. Unofficial figures in the third New Jersey district, where Robert Carson, Republican, was conceded to have won, show a plurality of fourteen for Thomas J. Scully, present incumbent. Should Scully be declared the winner in the official count on Monday and should the re-election of Britt each party will have elected 215 members, with the result in New Mexico still in doubt. The election of Britt and Carson however would give the Republicans a majority of one with a possible chance to win an additional member in New Mexico.

IMPROVEMENTS AT STORE OF ANDRE & ANDRE

Messrs. Andre & Andre are making important changes in the interior of their store, which they feel will add much to its attractiveness and be a decided improvement. The office which has for a long time been at the corner by the east front door, has been removed to the center of the room and is now directly under the central skylight which will be far better than artificial illumination.

The stenographer, Miss Edna Uhlen, and the bookkeeper, Miss Harriet Andre, will both have more pleasant quarters. Additional room will be afforded for the display of goods and the space for that has been increased by more platform space on the east side. These evidences of prosperity and progress are gratifying to all who enjoy the welfare and improvement of the city.

The Burden on Consumers.

Says the Philadelphia Public Ledger:

"It is high time some competent authority undertook, in the interest of the whole people, an exhaustive inquiry into the conditions which govern the prices of food and other necessities of life. For the vast majority of the people of the United States 'prosperity' such as that which we are now experiencing is very far from being an unmixed blessing. If the activities of the munition factories and other industries stimulated into new energy by the artificial demand created by the war have increased unemployment and increased wages, it is also clear that the accompanying gains in the material welfare of the workers have not kept pace with the increase in the cost of living. And it is only too certain that the great army of salaried employees, for whom prosperity has brought virtually no additions to income, are confronted by higher prices for nearly everything that enters into their weekly and daily budget of necessities.

"The time is passing or has already passed when the public interest in such a matter can be ignored as negligible. People will no longer submit to the primitive system of charging 'all the traffic will bear,' either in rates for transportation, or in the prices of food or fuel. They are already in possession of proof of extortions committed at their expense, the repeated unjust exactions of the hard coal operators being a case in point. And they will no longer hold guiltless a government which neglects to meet the emergency and to seek resolutely for a remedy for an antiquated and wasteful method of distribution which is habitually made the medium of what is nothing short of wholesale robbery. When retail prices so far exceed the cost of production as seems to be the case now, it is time the public were put in possession of the truth and that the means were provided for ending the illegitimate profits of middlemen and monopolists. If a federal probe can contribute to this end, it can not be too soon undertaken, but it must be begun and carried on in earnest and carried ruthlessly to the very bottom. Otherwise it will be a sham and a fraud, deepening confusion and adding to the already too heavy burden that is being borne by consumers."

Changes in the Senate.

There will be many changes in the United States Senate March 4. Some of the most prominent senators will retire and some nationally conspicuous new members will be seated. The Democratic leader, Mr. Kern, will be succeeded by Harry S. New, who once published the Indianapolis Journal and who has long been prominent in Republican politics. A new president pro tempore of the Senate must be elected in December, owing to the death of Senator Clarke of Arkansas, one of the most independent senators of recent years. Blair Lee of Maryland and Luke Lea of Tennessee will retire, having been defeated for re-nomination. Moses Clapp of Minnesota, one of the oldest and hardest working senators, was likewise eliminated in the primary. His successor, Frank B. Kellogg, is a lawyer of wide reputation and will doubtless become a force in the Senate.

Tom Taggart's glory was short, says the Globe-Democrat. Nothing but a gubernatorial appointment would have given him such an honor. James E. Watson, who succeeds him is former Republican whip of the House. As a popular orator he has few equals in America, but he has much opposition in his own party.

Rippling Rhymes

By WALT MASON

USELESS REGRETS.

We all regret our past mistakes, and view the same with wailing; but when we've made our dizzy runs, our tears are unavailing. You run your car at crazy speed through city streets and alleys; for safety rules you have no heed, on rural hills and valleys. Some day when you swing round a curve they'll sweep into your vision another car—you'll lose your nerve, and there'll be a collision. When from the tangled wreck you crawl with slats and wish-bone broken, the warning words you will recall that I've so often spoken. And when you lie upon a cot, with plaster casts around you, a string of dark, remorseful thought will torture and confound you. You'll weep for former folly then, your soul will be disgusted, but tears won't make you sound again, or heal the leg that's busted. And so with every foolish trick that you and I are springing! the penalty will make us sick, remorse and sorrow bring.

THIS DATE IN ILLINOIS HISTORY

November 11, 1748—Plans were projected to send an expedition from Canada to punish some Indians, particularly the Wabash and Illinois, who had attempted a conspiracy against the French.

because of his reputation as a "radical conservative." But his views may become more liberal. His ability is unquestioned. George T. Oliver will be superseded by Philander C. Knox, former senator, former secretary of state and former attorney general. He will be a tower of strength to the Republicans, and in our opinion, to the country.

James E. Martine and James A. O'Gorman, who have been thorns in the flesh of the president, will be succeeded by Republicans, both of high local standing, but nationally unknown. Gen. Dupont, whose expert knowledge has been very helpful in framing legislation, falls a victim to family row. George Sutherland of Utah, one of the very ablest members of the Senate, will also be missing, owing to a factional fight and the Wilson landslide. Clarence Clark of Wyoming, one of the strongest members of the Senate Judiciary Committee, will not return. Hiram Johnson, the unique Progressive from California, succeeds John Downey Works, who was equally unique in other ways. Johnson seems stronger at close range than at a distance. The Senate will be more interesting if not stronger.

A Republican Country.

Even the final accounting may show that President Wilson has been returned, the election has thoroughly demonstrated that the United States is a Republican country. In state after state that have given their electoral vote to the president practically all Republican candidates for state offices have been chosen by imposing majorities. The "solid south" is all that has saved the Democratic party from dissolution long ago and had even a small part of that section voted its sentiments instead of its prejudices this year Mr. Hughes would have been elected decisively.

The Democrats were never more confident of a sweeping victory than was the case this year and there were reasons for this optimism, says the Pantagraph. General conditions overwhelmingly favored them. Theirs was the party in power, an advantage in itself of large proportions. With all Europe engaged in the bloodiest war in history they were able to capitalize peace conditions in the United States. With the war prosperity at its height they could go before the country with the plausible but fallacious argument that such prosperity was due to Democratic policies. Added to these circumstances was the division in the Republican party four years ago.

With such conditions to contend against it is truly remarkable that the Republican party gave the Democrats one of the most tremendous battles in American history. Even the Democratic New York Times is marvelling over the great strength shown by the Republicans. It says: "The marvel of it is that the Republican party has been so completely reunited after the disastrous division of 1912. The rapid and complete healing of so dreadful a wound is without precedent in our politics."

The National Dairy Council.

In this day of organization and co-operation one of the most notable characteristics of the period is the natural grouping together of men engaged in similar business. In many instances these organized bodies result in price raising to the injury of the consumers and as such they are distinct menaces. However, when any organization is started for the one purpose of popularizing and promoting any product of a stable sort, particularly those related directly to agriculture—and when this organization is distinctly "not for profit" it is entitled to real support and encouragement.

"The National Dairy Council" is an organization of dairymen, dairy cattle breeders and representatives of all allied dairy interests. Its one purpose is to build a greater and better American dairy agriculture, resulting in improved soil fertility and better farm life. It also encourages American consumers to have keener appreciation of the high food value of dairy products. It is "not for profit."

With this patriotic mission the National Dairy Council deserves the support and encouragement of all those in any way connected with any of the industries which the scope of the charter includes.

Vacant Lots.

A few days since letters were sent to the mayor and members of the council in Decatur calling their attention to the existence of vacant lots within the limits of that city. The letters were sent for the purpose of suggesting that these lots might be made beauty spots and asking that the council urge owners to do this.

There is something in the suggestion; it will be well to have it acted on.

The lot owner should realize that perhaps it will be money in his pocket to keep the place looking well. It is conceivable this may bring a purchaser. Until you give the thing a trial you can't tell how favorably impressed a purchaser is with beauty.

We can go so far as to say that if one lot is growing a crop of weeds and another is kept in trim shape the weed patch is the one that will go unsold, other things being at all equal.

It doesn't cost a great deal of money to keep a vacant lot looking like something. People in the lot business on a big scale realize this, and the first thing they proceed to do is to lay an addition and then decorate it properly. They have been at this for many years, so on the whole they must have learned that it pays. The man with one lot can do the same, in fact must if he is going to compete.

Planting Alfalfa.

A bulletin just issued by the Burlington railway offering free use of their right-of-way to the farmers along their line for the growing of alfalfa shows a most commendable spirit on the part of this big corporation. Just at this time when the high cost of living is on everyone's tongue and the country is waking up to the fact that only two-fifths of the tiltable farm lands of the United States is actually under cultivation this move on the part of the Burlington should meet with a hearty acceptance on the part of both the farmers and the general public. How much more inspiring it will be to the travelling public to see great stretches of this beautiful and valuable grain lining their travel instead of the unsightly weeds that flourish but today and burn leaving even more unsightly visions behind. And how much more pleasant it is to think of the profit accruing to this large acreage taking the place of the cost that the railroad and ultimately the public is put to in having these weeds mowed several times per year. We would that more of the great corporations would take such a far-seeing view of their relations to the general public.

Population Does It.

Several have asked why New York has forty five electoral votes while Illinois has only twenty-nine. They remark that this year Illinois cast more votes election day than did New York, and therefore they ask why Illinois isn't given more votes in the electoral college.

Representation in the electoral college may be said to be based on population of a state, not on the size of its vote. Illinois' vote was larger than that of New York because women voted here and did not in New York.

But it is the population of a state, (save in the south, where the colored portion of the population is practically disfranchised) not the size of its vote, that determines its strength in the electoral college. New York has a good many more people than Illinois, even though we feel that those folks, if wise, would pack up and come here.

The election is over. Football and Thanksgiving are next.

A society has been formed for the promotion of "market basket shopping." Why not try it? Don't be afraid of ridicule.

We still have the State of Illinois and Morgan county to be thankful for.

VACHEL LINDSAY HAS BIRTHDAY

Nicholas Vachel Lindsay, one of the best-known of the American poets of the younger school, and who has twice spoken to Jacksonville audiences, is 37 years old today. Mr. Lindsay was born in Springfield, Ill., where he still resides. He was educated at Hiram College, Ohio, and later studied art in Chicago and New York. Mr. Lindsay's is a figure unique in American literature. He has revived the mode of living of the troubadours of old, and makes long walking trips during which he supports himself selling his "rhymes," as he calls them, reciting his poems and lecturing on poetry. He makes his appeal directly to the people, and wishes to be known as a poet distinctly of the people. This "tramp poet," however, has won recognition from literary critics the world over, and been called to recite his "rhymes" before the English departments of the leading schools and universities of America.

SMOKING IN STREET CARS

Much complaint has been made by ladies and some others regarding smokers in the new side seat street cars as the vestibules are not shut off and smokers might almost as well be in the body of the cars. One lady remarked that she was obliged to use the car as she had so far to go but often felt sick at the end of her journey.

When the matter was mentioned to Supt. Gray, the superintendent said it was his desire to see all in his power to seek the welfare and comfort of the patrons of the street railroad. Spitting in the cars he could forbid for that was law but this was a matter different and he was not certain what his legal rights were but requested the Journal to urge smokers to regard the feelings of others at any rate and refrain from smoking while riding on the new cars. He also said he would give the subject further attention and see what could be done in the premises as it was his earnest desire to afford the people satisfactory service as far as possible.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTION AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

This is a good time to take up special work. The second quarter begins November 20, and work may begin in organ, piano, violin, voice, etc., also in china painting, leather work, drawing and painting, expression or elocution, public speaking and in cooking and sewing.

There are scores of girls and young women in Jacksonville, who ought to be developing their special abilities in some of these directions. It is greatly worth while. The College offers unusual advantages. Call at the office or by phone, and arrange for lessons.

KNOX SNATCHES VICTORY FROM ILLINOIS ORATOR

Henry Caldwell, I. C. Representative in State Oratorical Contest, Places
Third After Erroneous "Returns"
Had Sp'ead the News that Illinois
Was First.

Illinois college was given third place Friday evening in the state intercollegiate oratorical contest at Galesburg. Knox college was first and Monmouth ranked second.

Henry Caldwell, the Illinois orator, delivered an oration on Edgar Allan Poe entitled "The Cypress and the Day." Great was the rejoicing on the part of Illinois college delegates when it was announced from the platform that Mr. Caldwell stood first. The oration was well conceived and clearly written, and Mr. Caldwell, who has had most experience in dramatic and oratorical work, was at his best in the matter of delivery. Like a thunderbolt a short time later came the news that thru an error in reckoning the Illinois orator was not the winner and had been relegated to third place. Like election returns, it seemed, the first report was nullified by the count. Two of the judges had given Mr. Caldwell first, the markings of a third put him at sixth place, the totals placing the Illinois orator at third rank in the contest.

To those who heard Mr. Caldwell deliver his oration at the chapel service Thursday forenoon, Illinois' chances for winning the intercollegiate contest never seemed better. For once, it appeared, Knox college must yield the palm. For several years a Knox college League has been in a way of winning. The co-operation of the department of public speaking, and the Knox faculty in general, it is said, has in most instances "put their orators across." In school affairs, as in politics, the steam roller often wins.

The subject of the Knox orator was "American Patriotism." B. W. Van Pelt of Monmouth spoke on "The Spirit of Belgium." Pauline Rogers of Blackburn university stood in fourth place and her subject was "The Sting of the Lash." Howard Rhea of Illinois Wesleyan university, won fifth, speaking on the subject, "The Prophet of Peace."

The sixth place was given to Rex Hieronymus of Eureka college, with the subject, "Evolution of Nationalism."

The judges were President Ward L. Ray of William and Vashti college, Prof. W. T. Morgan of Illinois Normal, Prof. Blanchard of Wheaton college, Pres. H. D. Hoover of Carthage college and Prof. Henry C. Ward of the University of Illinois.

Mr. Caldwell was accompanied to Galesburg by a delegation of Illinois college men who will go to Decatur today and will witness the Illinois-Millikin game before their return. Robert Capps represented the senior class and Robert Foster the junior. Francis Taylor was the sophomore representative and Charles Capps was sent by the freshmen. The Phi Alpha representative was Robert Nesmith and Ralph Baker went for Sigma Pi. The party was accompanied by Prof. J. G. Ames, head of the department of English.

SITUATION SERIOUS FOR GREEK GOVERNMENT

London, Nov. 10.—Count Mirbach the German minister to Greece, has notified the Greek government, according to special dispatches from Athens, that the handing over of Greek guns and rifles to the entente allies would be regarded as an unfriendly act by Germany. CANVASSING BOARD COMPLETES THE COUNT

Minor Changes Do Not Alter Candidates Standing—Boston Leads by Twelve Votes—Saylor Carries the County Over Rainy.

The official canvassing board has completed the work of canvassing the men's vote of Morgan county at the election held Tuesday. The work was finished late Friday afternoon.

There were but a few minor changes over the unofficial count as given in The Journal Wednesday morning. The greatest interest centered in the vote for circuit clerk between C. W. Boston and F. B. Henderson. The unofficial figures gave Boston a plurality of 17. He lost five votes on Thursday, reducing his plurality to 12. In the count on Friday Boston gained a vote in No. 7 and Henderson gained one in No. 12, making the final figures 12 votes in favor of Boston.

There were a number of changes in the vote of various candidates, but not enough to make any difference in the final result. In Jacksonville No. 4 it was discovered that 104 votes had been credited to Hamm that should have been given to E. M. Henderson, candidate for county surveyor, in precinct No. 9 McDonald gained 10 votes over Magill.

The official count on the following officers was completed Friday evening.

For Congress—Rainey, Democrat, 4632; Saylor, Republican, 4663, Saylor's majority, 31.

Board of Equalization—Hirschman, Democrat, 3380; Kirby, Republican, 4180, Kirby's majority, 800.

For Representative—Lyons, Republican, 6957½; Merritt, Democrat, 6046; Frisch, Republican, 5894½; Jones, Democrat, 5543. Lyons' plurality, 1413½; Merritt's plurality, 503; Frisch's plurality, 350½.

Circuit Clerk—Boston, Democrat, 4685; Henderson, Republican, 4976, Boston's majority, 12.

State's Attorney—Robinson, Republican, 4858; Thompson, Democrat, 3357. Robinson's majority, 1499.

Coroner—Rose, Republican, 4549; Wright, Democrat, 3635. Rose's majority, 915.

Only the men's vote has been counted on surveyor. Women also can vote for that office. The men's vote follows:

Henderson, Republican, 4564; Hamm, Democrat, 3744. Henderson's plurality, 620.

County Commissioner—Magill, Republican, 4167; McDonald, Democrat, 3974. Magill's majority, 193.

REV. L. J. CHRISTIAN
HERE FROM CHINAMISSIONARY AND WIFE WILL SPEND TEN DAYS IN CITY

Mr. Christian Will Speak at Congregational Church—His Field of Work is in Great City of Foochow, China.

Several years ago the Congregational church of this city decided to maintain a missionary pastor. The first one was in South Africa, but the health of the missionary's wife caused him to return to this country and then, Rev. Leonard J. Christian was recommended to the church and adopted six years ago. He came here and during a short visit greatly endeared himself to the people of the church and then took his departure for his field of work in the great city of Foochow, China. The plant there is a large one and includes a hospital, a college, schools, kindergarten and other branches of usefulness.

Mr. Christian left Jacksonville a single man but very sensibly proceeded to become interested in a devoted missionary teacher, Miss Agnes Julia Meebold and finally asked her to become his wife which she did and they had the pleasure of keeping their engagement a secret till they saw fit to make it known much to the amusement and pleasure of their missionary friends. They are in America on their regular furlough and expect to remain in the city some ten or twelve days and will principally be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Smith on West College avenue who many others will claim the privilege of entertaining them a part of the time.

Mr. Christian was born in Albany, New York and there grew to manhood and received a high school education. In 1900 he joined the medical department of the U. S. Army and served some time in the Philippines until the beginning of the Boxer troubles in China when his company was ordered to that land and landed in Tientsin, the northern part of China. There they received word of the strains to which the legations were reduced and the dangers which menaced them from the natives and the weather was extremely hot the command was given get to the great capital with all haste.

The hardships and privations attending that march of more than a hundred miles can hardly be imagined. Through a hostile country, few facilities of any kind for food and drink loaded with heavy equipment, the troops bravely went ahead the some fell by the way from sheer exhaustion.

The Boxer Trouble.

Arriving the night of the 13th the troops sought what little rest they could get and next day began the battle of two days which resulted in the fall of the city and the rescue of the legations. The joy of the beleaguered residents of those legations can hardly be imagined. Rescued from certain death and torture they were ready to fall on their knees to their brave rescuers who at such fearful cost had accomplished the task assigned them. In it all Mr. Christian took an active part enduring the hardships and nobly performing his duty without wavering.

Mr. Christian remained with the army till 1903 when he went into the service of the Army and Navy. M. C. A. at Pekin and remained there eighteen months when he decided to fit himself for the ministry and for that purpose came to America and entered the school of missionaries, Oberlin, Ohio, where he graduated in 1910 and at once took up his work. He made the return trip by the Mediterranean sea and the Suez canal and arriving on the ground entered heartily into the work. He taught in the college there years doing all kinds of missionary work and serving as treasurer of the college also, then was transferred to the superintendency of the hospital on account of his experience gained while in the army. Here he was as useful as in other places and when Dr. Kiser and wife left for their furlough he was placed in full charge and performed the arduous duties of the position with signal ability.

Miss Agnes Julia Meebold was born in Chicago and graduated at Wheaton college in 1908 and taught a year in the service of the American Missionary Association in Alabama and then went to China under the auspices of the Woman's Board of Missions for the Interior. Her first station was at Ingkok, now Ingai, a romantic place on the Ingkok river surrounded by a country properly designated as the Switzerland of China. There she worked in a school for girls two years, then the revolution broke out and the consul sent an escort to bring the missionaries to Foochow, a safer place.

There she met the one with whom she promised to travel the path of life and they were married on Washington's birthday and united in a single purpose they entered heartily into the work before them. She is a lady of great executive ability, pleasing in manner, kindly in disposition and winning in her ways and at the same time full of energy and possessing great ability. Her special work is the kindergarten that she teaches also in the college but it is with the little folks that her greatest efforts are put forth for their minds are plastic and open better to the truth. Her work is of vast importance and well done.

A Great Opportunity.

Mr. Christian says China is open to missionary influence as never before, and especially are the persons from this country welcome for they remember with gratitude the kindness shown them in various ways by our government. It is a time of especial opportunity and much is being accomplished. The gospel of Christ, it is, or would be, the salvation of that great land. It is the one thing especially needed to bring the people from darkness to light; from ignorance to intelligence and from anarchy to a united patriotic land. The political situation today can scarcely be defined but the present president seems to be succeeding to some extent in bringing together the various provinces of the land and the hope is that he will succeed in establishing a stable government.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian will appear in the Congregational church Sundays and on other occasions; they have with them many interesting articles and curios and slides for stereopticon lectures and their stay will be pleasant for the church primarily and the people of the entire city will be gladly welcome at any and all the occasions when the visitors appear in public.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD
FOR DR. BYRON S. GAILEY

Many Friends Gather at Residence for Last Tribute to Memory of Prominent Physician and Valued Citizen—Burial at Island Grove.

Impressive funeral services for Dr. Byron S. Gailey were held at the family residence, 1340 West 13th street, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the presence of a large assemblage of sorrowing friends. The Rev. M. L. Pontius, pastor of Central Christian church, was in charge and he was assisted by Dr. R. O. Post of the Congregational church. Mrs. William Barr Brown sang in beautiful manner two selections, "Sometime We'll Understand" and "Face to Face." Mrs. Brown sang "Asleep in Jesus" during the service at the grave. Among the friends of Dr. Gailey present at the funeral were the physicians of Jacksonville who attended in a body.

Dr. Post read the 23rd Psalm and a portion of the 14th chapter of St. John, two passages from Scripture which were favorites of the deceased. "There are two words in the English language which have long defied definition," said Mr. Pontius. "These words are 'life' and 'death' and the scientist, the philosopher nor the theologian has been able to penetrate the mystery of man's origin and his final destiny. Life has been called a 'vale between the barren peaks of two eternities.' Others have referred to life merely as existence between birth and death. Life which, taking its rise in the mountains, pursues a long course to the sea and is lost in the mighty waters of the ocean. But the soul in its better moments knows a truer definition of life. We realize in our heart of hearts that there is no death and that what seems so is but transition. And we listen to the words of the Master, 'I am the resurrection and the life. He that believeth in Me, tho he were dead, yet shall he live again.'"

After the services at the home the body was taken by automobile cortege to Island Grove and burial was made in Woodworth cemetery. The bearers were Dr. Darwin S. Gailey, Dr. Watson W. Gailey and Eugene Gailey, brothers of the deceased; Elmore Gailey, Edwin Smith, E. W. Brown, Warfield Brown and Frank Huffaker. The honorary bearers were Dr. H. B. Carriel, Dr. F. A. Norris, Dr. Edward Rowe, Dr. W. E. Dove of Chicago and William G. Goebel.

BOOSTER CLUB HEARS OF STEEL BRIDGE CO.

T. W. Beadle the speaker Friday evening at meeting of Young Men at Douglas Hotel—Festival Report Given.

T. W. Beadle was the speaker and the Illinois Steel Bridge company was the theme at the November meeting of the Young Men's Booster club, held Friday evening at the Hotel Douglas. E. V. Bassett read the report of the secretary and George W. Vasconcellos, president of the club, called upon Secretary H. Jay Rodgers, for a report of the recent fall festival.

It developed that a deficit of $231.05 remained after the financial affairs of the festival had been settled and after some discussion the motion prevailed that the soliciting committee should take up the matter with merchants who backed the enterprise and with the public spirited citizens.

Mr. Beadle referred to the bridge company as an industry which has grown from a small beginning and which now means much to the business life of Jacksonville. Seventy-five men are employed in the local plant and some seven hundred tons of steel are each month worked into the finished product. The company does business over a wide territory, maintaining branches in Omaha, St. Paul, Spokane and Little Rock.

That is a definition not only of democracy, but of true university freedom.'—From the chapter called 'The Freedom to Choose.'"

GOOD WORK BEING DONE IN LYNNVILLE SCHOOLS

Building Has Good Location and the Teachers, Miss George and Miss Green, Have Attentive Classes.

Although Lynnville has been left by the railroads don't by any means think it is off the map, for if you do so think you are greatly mistaken. The place is located in the garden spot of Illinois and all about it are fine farms, commodious residences and men up to the times in farming and stock raising. Land in that vicinity is not for sale and if a man would insist on getting a place anywhere near that town he would pay a good round price for it.

Lynnville has two school buildings close together, one for the upper grades and one for the primary, and they are located right in the center of the town near the Christian church and surrounded by a playground on which grow a number of locust and other trees. A few years ago, when the writer visited the schools some games of glass were lacking in the largest building, but they have all been replaced.

Another visit was made a few days ago and Miss Mildred George, teacher of the high school, most cordially welcomed the visitor, invited over Miss Helen R. Green with her primary pupils and informed the visitor they would be pleased to hear what he would have to offer regarding his travels.

The ways and customs of the people across the seas are always a topic of interest to the rising generation and the subject was made as plain as possible and the help of pictures and curios was invoked to aid in the effort. The pupils showed much interest in what was told them and seemed anxious to learn what they could do, of course, in an hour one can do such a subject rather scant justice. However, the best use possible was made of the time at the command of the caller and it was pleasantly spent.

The pupils have a library supplied with a number of books and on the walls are some pictures, one of the Forum at Rome telling the story of the fall of what was once the mistress of the world.

The teachers and pupils were grateful for the talk and to show their patriotism and gratitude, also they sang "America" with a will and it was, indeed, gratifying to hear those young and vigorous voices roll out the notes and words of the national hymn. May their patriotism grow with the years and may they always be true to the dear old flag.

The directors of the school are Messrs. Edgar Watson, Charles Gibbs and Harry Coultas.

The pupils are:
Fifth grade: Blanche Hills, Ruth Sayre, Addie Todd, Christie Torman, Charlie Watson.

Sixth grade: Winnifred Coultas, Marie Fitzpatrick, Mary Whewell.

Seventh grade: Dale Blackburn, Alvin Coultas, Fred Coultas.

Eighth grade: Edward Coultas, Dorothy Coultas, Edna Coultas, Louise Ferman, Ralph Heaton, Hil-dreth Watson, Lorena Watson, Joe Fitzpatrick.

Primary School.
First grade: Norman Stanton, Raymond Todd, Ruth Sayre.

Second grade: Chester Stainforth, Byron Crouse, Clyde Watson, Virgil Gibbs, Glenn Coultas, Lohi McNeely.

Third grade: Florence Brower, Louise Fitzpatrick, Lillie German.

Fourth grade: Helen Coultas, Gayle Gibbs, Louise Fearnough, Gerald Heaton, Viola McNeely, Irene Reick, Gilbert Todd, Bertha Todd, Paul Watson, Keith Whewell.

Mrs. Louis Rexroat is seriously ill at her home near Concord.

Mrs. Charles Howard of the vicinity of Markham underwent a serious operation at Passavant hospital Thursday. She is still suffering much but is doing as well as could be expected.

"A MARK OF CONFIDENCE."
In the current Franklin Times, Warren N. Luttrell, the editor, has the following to say regarding the success of Mr. Robinson at the polls: "The election of Carl E. Robinson to the important office of state's attorney by what is said to be the largest majority ever given any candidate, Democrat or Republican, for county office in Morgan county, is a gratifying expression of the confidence the people repose in him and a splendid tribute to his personality."

"Mr. Robinson carried Franklin precincts, combining by a majority of 14 votes, having a majority of 24 votes in precinct No. 2, where 36 Democrats voted for him and only two Republicans for his opponent. His opponent carried precinct No. 1 by a majority of 10 votes, though a comparison with the vote on President Wilson shows that at least 30 Democrats in this precinct also voted for Robinson. The fact that he carried every precinct in Jacksonville where his opponent has been a life-long resident, makes his race all the more notable."

"His election means more than a Republican victory, for he was supported by many Democrats who were attracted to him by his splendid record as a man who has made his own way in the world and fought his battles without the backing of wealth, social prestige or political pull. His whole life history is a convincing argument that he will give Morgan county good service and his friends are satisfied that the voters will have no reason to regret the confidence they placed in him at the polls last Tuesday."

REINALD WERRENATH

Noted American Baritone

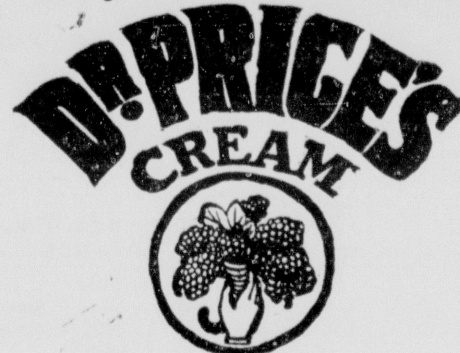

Grand Opera House

Wednesday Eve, Nov. 15 At 8:30

Mr. Werrenath as a baritone singer is without a peer. He is known in all the large musical centers of America and Europe. Says the New York Tribune: "Few recitals of the season have been so altogether enjoyable as the one given last night in Aeolian Hall by Reinald Werrenath. Mr. Werrenath is a singer who is today in the very first rank of American concert artists and his recital last night put him a peg ahead of the position he has already attained. His voice is one of great natural beauty, luscious in quality, uniform throughout its range, freely produced and perfectly produced and controlled. He is a singer who possesses what apparently so few artists dream of today, the art of song. * * * Many a singer on the concert and operatic stage would do well to attend a recital by Mr. Werrenath. They would learn much which they do not know now."

JACKSONVILLE AND BEARDSTOWN TIE

NEITHER TEAM ABLE TO SCORE IN GAME FRIDAY.

Locals Outplay Visitors During Most of Game and Keep Ball in Beardstown Territory—River Town Team Threatens Jacksonville's Goal in Second Quarter.

In one of the hardest fought football games ever seen on Illinois field Jacksonville High and Beardstown High battled to a scoreless draw Friday afternoon. It was a game in which there was alternate brilliant and poor playing. Both teams showed lack of judgment in attack and several times it seemed that a different play would have made the necessary distance.

Jacksonville excelled in line plunging, while Beardstown was superior in forward passing. It seemed that Beardstown at times had an opportunity to score if they had continued the air route attack.

Jacksonville outplayed Beardstown the major portion of the game and kept the ball in Beardstown's territory. In the first part of the game and especially in the second quarter it looked like Jacksonville used poor judgment in not punting instead of losing the ball on downs in her own territory. It was in this period that Beardstown threatened the locals' goal.

First Quarter.
Jacksonville kicked to Beardstown and downed the ball on the 35-yard line. Beardstown made a few small gains on line plays and was held for downs on her own 30-yard line. Beardstown held and then made first down on three plays. Beardstown added another first down on two line plays and an end run. Beardstown continued her march until Jacksonville held on the 15-yard line.

Jacksonville was unable to gain and punted to Beardstown's 10-yard line and the ball was downed on the 35-yard line. Beardstown punted to Jacksonville's 40-yard line.

Jacksonville made first down on two line plays by Howard Reynolds and then Johnson went thru the line for eight yards and Hull made first down. Beardstown held in the center of the field. The quarter ended with the ball in Beardstown's possession in the center of the field.

Second Quarter.
Beardstown punted over Jacksonville's goal line and the ball was put in scrimmage on Jacksonville's 20-yard line. Jacksonville made first down and then lost the ball on downs on her own 40-yard line. Beardstown hit the line for six yards and then made 20 yards on an end run. Beardstown failed to gain and Bauman tried a drop which failed and Jacksonville put the ball into play on the 20-yard line.

Jacksonville failed to gain and punted to Beardstown on her 25-yard line. Beardstown worked a successful forward pass for 20 yards and then lost the ball on downs on the 30-yard line. Beardstown immediately held on Jacksonville's 35-yard line. Beardstown made first down and were then held for downs. The half ended with the ball in Jacksonville's possession on her own 20-yard line.

Third Quarter.
Beardstown kicked to Johnson on the 15-yard line and he carried the ball back to the 35-yard line. Hull and Johnson made first down on two line plays. The Reynolds twins and Hull again made first down on three plays. Howard Reynolds and Hull again made first down. Reynolds making nine yards and Hull one. Hull tried a place kick and the ball was blocked and recovered by Beardstown on her 15-yard line.

Beardstown made first down and was then held and kicked to Jacksonville on the 15-yard line. Jacksonville carried the ball by line plunges and end runs to Beardstown's 40-yard line. Hull tried another place kick, which failed. Beardstown put the ball in play on her 20-yard line and had made seven yards when the quarter ended.

Fourth Quarter.
Beardstown made 12 yards on an end run. Beardstown was unable to gain and punted to Jacksonville in the middle of the field. Hull made two yards thru the line and on the next play Johnson fumbled the ball on a line play and Beardstown recovered it in the middle of the field. Jacksonville immediately held and took the ball. Jacksonville, by a steady march, took the ball to Beardstown's 8-yard line, where Beardstown held for downs. Beardstown started with rush and with line plays, end runs and forward passes, one for 30 yards, worked the ball down the field into Jacksonville territory. Finally Firke intercepted a forward pass on Jacksonville's 20-yard line. Reeve went in for Green at quarter.

Jacksonville made first down on a line plunge by Homer Reynolds and then added four yards on an end run. Jacksonville fumbled and Beardstown recovered. Beardstown made six yards on end run when time was called for the fourth quarter. The line-up:

Jacksonville.	Beardstown.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME WILL BE PLAYED TODAY

Illinois and Millikin Will Battle in Football Classic at Decatur—Teams Evenly Matched—Large Crowd of Local Rooters Will Witness Game—Pep Meeting Friday Night.

Over two hundred rooters accompanied by a brass band will leave Jacksonville on a special train over the Wabash this morning to witness the football game at Decatur this afternoon between Illinois College and Millikin university. The winner of the game will be champions of the Little Nineteen conference, despite the fact that St. Viators or Eureka may dispute the claim. Neither of these teams has lost a game and they also play this afternoon.

Great Interest in Game
The Illinois-Millikin game is arousing more interest even than did the game between these schools last year on Illinois field. Neither team has lost a game and on comparative scores they are equally matched. Millikin defeated Normal by a score of 52 to 7 while Illinois only defeated Normal by a score of 14 to 0. On the other hand Illinois defeated Lombard 26 to 7 while Millikin's score was 28 to 10. But Lombard played rings around Millikin in the first part of the game and led them for a considerable period of the game while with Illinois Lombard's only score came a few minutes before the game was over.

Straight Football Will Win
One hears much talk about the new plays that are being evolved by Coaches Wann and Harmon for the game today. However, in our opinion the game will be one in which straight football will largely figure. The team that runs its plays with the most precision and the greatest speed will be returned the winner if a decision is reached at all.

There is little to choose between the teams in the opinion of those who have followed the play of both teams. Illinois probably has a stronger line than Millikin while Millikin may have more speed in the back field as Johnson is a brilliant open field runner. However, Wilson probably will offset Johnson's work with his line bucking and dodging ability. In forward passing both teams are strong. However, it is probable that Wann and Harmon have built up such a strong defense that few forward passes will go right. If it develops into a straight football proposition Illinois should have the edge as we believe she has a stronger offense than Millikin and probably a better punch in a pinch than that remains to be seen.

Illinois took a signal practice Friday afternoon. The men were full of "pep" and are anxious for the line-up this afternoon when the question of supremacy will be settled.

The Illinois team will lineup as follows: Bendleman, Le, Mitchell, H. Zink, Le, Valentine or Russert, C. Thibaud, R. Conklin, R. Frisbie, R. Wilson, G. Helme or Whisler, H. Pierce, H. Jones or Spink, H.

Big "Pep" Meeting

One of the most enthusiastic "pep" meetings ever held on the hill was that of Friday evening in preparation for the Millikin game. The band was on hand and played stirring airs and there was a large number of town people in addition to the student body.

Optimism ran rife and all the speakers voiced the belief that Illinois was to be the victor at Decatur today. Fred Blum presided and called on the following speakers: Felix E. Farrell, Carl E. Robinson, Julian Frisbie, B. F. Lane, Stewart Russel, President Rammelkamp and Coach Harmon. All of the speakers were greeted with college yells and they were given with a vim, much valuable practice being had which will be of service this afternoon.

AN INTERESTING INCIDENT

Not many years after the war a young man who had served his country faithfully as a soldier, was riding alone one night in the southeast part of the county. He had turned his attention to handling stock and crying sales and was returning home after a strenuous day and as he came to a somewhat lonely part of the road he began singing a familiar hymn. As he drew near the home of a man he knew he saw a person standing in the front yard and drawing nearer discovered it was the wife of the resident and she at once accosted him remarking she recognized the voice and was pleased with the hymn and as she was feeling very ill and thought she might not live long she wanted him to sing that song at her funeral.

He tried to dissuade her from her presentiment saying she might yet live to sing at his funeral but she persisted in her opinion and he promised. However she did recover and occasionally would remind the young man of his promise and he agreed to do as she wished. And so it went on year after year and both became old in years and grey hair did finally in her last illness not long ago she again referred the request to her old time friend. By that time he had nearly forgotten the words of the hymn but he recalled them and at the funeral redeemed the promise made nearly half a century before.

The lady was Mrs. Allen Hughes of Murrayville and the young man was Capt. John E. Wright of this city.

The Chippewa, of 8,898 gross tonnage, left Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 4 for Boston. She was built in 1905. The vessel lies in twenty feet of water. Efforts to float her are expected to begin at once. A great hole in the Chippewa's bottom was said to be the only damage.

— Loan Sharks Are Busy in Chicago —

CHICAGO, NOV. 10.—As an aftermath to the national election where countless hundreds are said to have wagered divers sums that Charles Evans Hughes would be the next president, loan agents appeared upon the local political battle field today. The loan agents are flooding the city with circulars reading like this:

"Did you bet the family bank roll on the wrong man or blow in too much coin celebrating the great victory? In either case if you are short of ready cash, let us be your bankers. Simply mention your name. Your credit is o. k."

— Women of State Cast Big Vote Tuesday —

A sailor named Laundry is the only survivor of the crew which numbered twenty-three. Laundry clung to a life raft and drifted until picked up by fishermen.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 10.—The steamer Castilla, owned by H. H. Brown and Company, here, is unloading at Toledo, according to the owners.

— Claims Germany is Certain of Final Victory —

AMSTERDAM, VIA LONDON, NOV. 10.—Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg expressed the conviction that Germany was certain of final victory in his speech before the Reichstag committee yesterday, according to reports of the session published here. The chancellor is quoted as saying:

"England and France in 1915 guaranteed to Russia territorial rule over Constantinople, the Bosphorus and the western shores of the Dardanelles with its Hinterland, while Asia-Minor was to be divided among the Entente. The annexation intentions of our enemies also include Alsace-Lorraine, which the League of Peace is to guarantee them. Such a policy of course cannot form a basis for an effective peace union. Germany is ready at all times to join a union of the peoples and even to place herself at the head of such a union to restrain a disturber of the peace. Not in the shadow of Prussian militarism did the world live before the war but in the shadow of a policy of isolation which was to keep Germany down."

MOVIE OPERATOR SAVES CROWD

Is Badly Burned by Blazing Film—Hurks Reel Into Street.

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 10.—To save the lives of the crowd of spectators in a local picture theater last night, Glenn Wilson, 15-year-old movie operator, probably forfeited his own life when he seized the blazing film from his machine and threw it thru a trap door of his cage into the street.

The boy's clothing took fire and he suffered fearful burns. Several persons were bruised when the crowd rushed for the exits. The building did not catch fire.

FALL CARE OF FLOWERS

Winter Protection for Perennial Plants—How to Prepare and Store Roots and Bulbs.

Steps to be taken at this season for placing the flower garden in shape for winter will vary with the kinds of plants grown and the latitude, say specialists of the department. In the case of perennials, which did down to the ground but which should live thru the winter and send up shoots again on the advent of warm weather, the roots should be well mulched with manure 3 or 4 inches deep as soon as the ground freezes. In this group are included such plants as peonies, larkspur, hollyhock, columbine, iris, platycodon, and perennial poppies.

Cannas and Kindred Plants. Plants such as cannas, dahlias, gladioli, and Caladiums should have their roots dug up and stored in a cellar where the temperature will not rise above 60 degrees nor fall below 50 degrees F. The root clumps of cannas and dahlias should not be shaken free of soil. These plants with the soil naturally adhering to them should be placed on racks or in slat boxes so that air may circulate among them. It is important that the roots do not become too warm or dry and that no frost shall reach them. The bulbs of gladioli, Caladiums, and tuberose, on the other hand, should be carefully cleaned of soil and dried in the open air for a day or two. They may then be stored in the cellar.

Geraniums. In all but semitropical portions of the United States geraniums must be taken indoors for winter. Florists usually make cuttings in the fall to grow new plants in greenhouses for spring use. This practice is, of course, impracticable for the average householder. The latter may take up growing plants and hold them in a dormant condition by storing upright in boxes of dry soil in a cellar having a temperature of from 40 degrees to 50 degrees F. The plants may be placed close together with only a little dry soil among the roots.

Pansies. While taking many plants indoors for the winter, the home gardener in a large section of the country should set out in the fall the pansy plants which are to make up the spring beds of these flowers. This procedure should be followed in the country south of a line from New York City to Springfield, Ill. The young plants should be covered by coarse manure at the first freezing of the ground before it has an opportunity to thaw.

Preparing Shrubs for Winter.

While a number of the shrubs commonly grown in the garden will go thru the winter without injury if let alone, others must be given varying degrees of special attention. Among the shrubs which need no unusual fall and winter care are snowball, spirea, mock orange and lilacs.

Hydrangeas, even in the south, must have special winter protection and in the north must be lifted, set in tubs, and kept in a frost-proof cellar. An east and west line thru Philadelphia is generally accepted as marking the boundary north of which it is necessary to take hydrangeas indoors. South of this line it is usually sufficient to protect the tops of the plants with straw or brush while they are in their outdoor locations. A little manure or straw may be placed on this covering to hold it in place. The brugnansia, or thorn apple, should be treated like the hydrangea.

STATEWIDE PROHIBITION DEFEATED IN MISSOURI

"Dry" Proposition Is Voted Down by An Overwhelming Vote by St. Louisans.

St. Louis, Nov. 10.—Statewide prohibition was defeated in Missouri last Tuesday by an overwhelming vote.

Returns from more than half the voting precincts of the state gave a majority of more than 124,000 against the amendment. The majority for prohibition in the 1,353 precincts outside of St. Louis reporting was about 2,500.

NUMEROUS AERIAL COMBATS REPORTED

Seventy-seven Clashes Among Air-men on French Front Thursday.

Paris, Nov. 10.—Seventy-seven aerial combats were fought on the French front yesterday. The war office reports that in these encounters a Fokker and nine other German airplanes were brought down.

There was intermittent artillery fighting on various sections of the front and also infantry skirmishing.

HEBREW CONFERENCE IN NEW YORK
New York, Nov. 10.—Delegates triennial convention of the national council of Young Men's Hebrew and kindred associations of America. The convention will continue in session two days.

FEEDERS MARGIN STILL SHORT ONE

Advancing Prices are, However, Stimulus to Cattle Breeding.

Materialization of twelve-dollar cattle in the market spells plainly a war price situation. Cattle have been advanced because of the scarcity of beef for consumption in this country, occasioned in great part by the enormous exports.

Cattle are not proportionately higher than corn or other feeds. All farm commodities have gone higher under the influence of the war demand and as long as this demand continues prices will be dominated by it.

The country shows an actual increase in beef production over a few years ago and the advancing prices are a stimulus to cattle breeding. Let the breeder have no fear of violent reaction in cattle values, and the feeder must continue to bear in mind that twelve-dollar cattle can have only a like effect upon feeder cattle cost and also feed-stuff cost, with that which came about when a ten-dollars. The feeder's margin, taking dollars. The feeders margin, taking all things into consideration, is still a short one. —Drovers' Journal.

EXPRESS CO. DECLARES AN EXTRA DIVIDEND

American Pays $2 on Stock In Addition to Regular Quarterly Dividend.

New York, Nov. 10.—The American Express company declared an extra dividend of $2 on its stock in addition to the regular quarterly dividend of $1.50. This establishes the stock on an eight per cent dividend basis. The extra dividend, it was stated, was taken from income derived from the company's investments.

Mrs. Gertrude Richardson of E.

FARM NOTES

SHELLED CORN SALES

New Standards Not to Apply to Contracts Made Before September 1 For Delivery After December 1, 1916.

Sales of shelled corn made before September 1, 1916, for delivery after December 1, 1916, will not be subject to the recently enacted United States grain standards act, under which official standards for corn have been established by the secretary of agriculture, effective December 1, 1916. This statement is made in Service and Regulatory Announcements No. 13, Office of Markets and Rural Organization of the department, recently issued. It is stated, however, that the opinion expressed is advisory only, and it is pointed out that while it expresses the views of the department on the question involved it is, of course, not binding on the courts.

In construing the act as permitting the shipment of grain under contracts made before September 1 for delivery after December 1, without reference to the official grades to become effective on the latter date, the department declares, in its opinion: "It is plainly impossible for the parties to an agreement to sell or consign, entered into before there is any official grain standards of the United States and before there is any opportunity to know what they will be, to specify the grade of the grain involved in accordance with such standards. It would plainly impute to Congress an absurd intention and would give a harmful retroactive effect to the statute, to hold that it prohibits the shipment of grain in interstate or foreign commerce pursuant to an agreement not made according to standards which had not yet been promulgated or become effective even though such standards are established before the shipment. The language of the act does not necessarily or reasonably require that such construction be given."

Relief comes instantly. A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end grippe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

The opinion directs attention to the fact that certain grain exchanges have adopted the new corn standards as a basis for contracts entered into on and after September 1, and that practical difficulties anticipated in the settlement of contracts made before September 1 on the basis of the old grades will be largely overcome by private adjustments. In connection with its opinion the department explains that it is its earnest aim to work in close harmony with and in the interest of all branches of the agricultural industry and that it is not its desire unduly or unnecessarily to disturb trade conditions.

In Service and Regulatory Announcements No. 13 it is also stated that the standards for shelled corn adopted by the department have no effect on the legal weight per bushel of that grain. The department points out that weights per bushel are mentioned in the grades only as minimum test weights for grades Nos. 1 and 2, since it is necessary to consider weight in some seasons and under some conditions to insure against the inclusion in these two grades of an undue proportion of light, immature, or chaffy kernels which would not be excluded by the other requirements of the grades. Since the exclusion of such kernels from the lower grades is considered to be of much less importance and to be satisfactorily covered otherwise, test weights for such grades are not included.

It is also pointed out in the announcement of the department that the requirements for inspectors under the act apply only to grains for which standards have been established thereunder and which are shipped or delivered for shipment in interstate or foreign commerce. No standards have been established under the act for any grain except those for shelled corn. The publication describes the requirements for licensing inspectors for shelled corn.

It also contains a list of the apparatus needed by a laboratory for determining the grade of shelled corn according to the official grain standards of the United States. Those wishing to obtain licenses to inspect and grade shelled corn are urged to apply at once to the Office of Markets and Rural Organization, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., for copies of the forms and other information relative to the licensing of inspectors of shelled corn.

Cairo, Egypt, Nov. 10.—Via London, 12:45 p. m.—Two German submarines were seen by persons on board the Arabia when that Peninsular and Oriental liner was sunk in the Mediterranean last Monday, and one of them, according to the officers, was fired upon by gunners on the Arabia after the liner had been hit by a torpedo.

The Arabia was struck aft on the starboard side by the torpedo which sank her. There was no panic among the 437 passengers or the crew, who immediately took to the boats. The Arabia sank an hour and a half later.

The City of Marseilles and another steamer and three trawlers picked up the survivors after they had been in the boats about an hour. The weather, fortunately was very fine.

WILL CONSIDER CARE OF FEEBLE-MINDED

Problem Will Confront Legislature Which Convenes in January.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 10.—The problem of the care of the feeble-minded will be prominent before the legislature which convenes in January.

The large number of bold crimes and misdemeanors charged to feeble-minded in the cities and the vast amount of study being given to this subject make it one of the most important social questions of the day.

In order that all who have studied this question and have ideas as to its treatment may get together to discuss a program of legislation that will have the support of all, the State Charities Commission has called a meeting to be held at Hotel LaSalle, Chicago, Tuesday afternoon, December 5th. At this time an effort will be made to reach an agreement upon what will be asked of the Assembly in the way of appropriations and laws.

A similar course was pursued in 1915, when a conference of this kind was held and agreed upon a commitment law, which was adopted by the Assembly without a dissenting vote.

This law has brought into the State School at Lincoln a number of new types. Prior to its enactment admission was voluntary and inmates could leave at will. None under six were taken in.

The new law has brought in the following: The delinquent feeble-minded boy whose crimes and is a reporter in the courts. Formerly he was sent either to Pontiac or Joliet.

The delinquent feeble-minded girl who is a mother of one or more children.

Babies under one year who are treated as "guests" and not as inmates, but must be admitted because they are too young to be separated from their mothers.

Married couples, both of whom are feeble-minded.

Children under six years.

The Lincoln institution was not equipped to care for these new types but has done the best it could under the circumstances.

Many social workers want the State to provide a second institution to be located near Chicago. The democratic platform endorsed the plan and it is known it will have strong support in the legislature.

Meanwhile liberal appropriations must be made to relieve the crowding at Lincoln and to provide accommodations suitable to each of these new types.

The State Charities Commission hopes to be able to lead the way to the formation of a definite policy for the development of institutional care for the feeble-minded and this meeting will be a step in that direction.

COAL PRICES ARE REPORTED DROPPING

New York, Nov. 10.—The tension in the coal situation has eased in the past few days and wholesale prices have dropped several dollars a ton, according to statements by trade authorities here today. Anthracite, selling recently at $12 to $12.50 a ton wholesale, may now be purchased for $8.50 to $10, coal men said.

Arthur F. Rice, president of the coal merchants' association, attributed the lower prices to milder weather and the fact that the public had recovered from its recent "panic," which householders filled their bins thru a fear that prices would rise still higher.

Mr. Rice said he believed the cost of coal would not go up again this season.
